

Northland Health Minds Coalition

November 16th , 2018

11 am – 12 pm

Government Services Center, St. Louis River Room

Meeting Notes

Item	Discussion	Action
Work group updates	Event work group is working on a screening of the Call Me Mental videos, organizing an art show/art crawl, and possibly bringing the Stuart Pimsler Dance Theater for a workshop. The youth work group is organizing the performances of Fidgety Fairy Tales - also considered the program from Z Puppets – but the Family Services Collaborative grant has Fidgety Fairy Tales named. The program needs to be booked by November 1st. The employer group has goals to: re-vamp the tool kit, increase the number of employers by 20% and diversify the group, develop pre- and post-measurement tools, and have at least three touchpoints after toolkit implementation for each employer. Northern St. Louis County is planning to have a Northland Healthy Minds kickoff on November 30th from noon to 2:00 at the hospital in Virginia and room McMillon A. There is interest in Grand Marais about a Northland Healthy Minds chapter in Cook and Shannon is meeting with a leader there. The meeting will be advertised promoted. Executive committee is reviewing the budget if you have any budget requests connect with Shannon	Work group leads review potential budgetary needs with work groups
IMPACT Survey Results	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Marna Canterbury presented the results of the IMPACT survey
Monthly featured organization discussion	Shannon will be reaching out to individual to share information about their organizations during future NHM meetings
Other Items for discussion	Continue to submit events for the calendar on the Northland Healthy Minds website. Next meeting December 21st 11am Government Services Center	